

How to Love

dear dorris,
I'm in a pretty happy
relationship, but I keep having doubts.
What do I do?

keeping love up
is hard work.

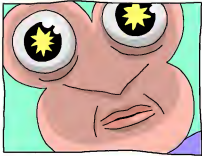

Suddenly,
you feel an itch

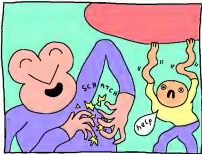

and the more you try
NOT to think about it

the itchier it gets

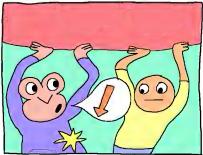

and if you scratch it
too eagerly

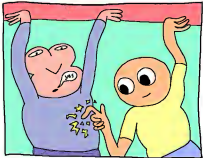

you risk dropping
all you have.

Be honest with your
lover

and maybe they can scratch your itch

but if the scratch
persists

then maybe you will need some scratching room.
